DANA welcomes Rodney Saunders as its new Director of Learning

Rodney Saunders, M.Ed. is the Delaware Alliance for Nonprofit Advancement’s new Director of Learning.

Rodney brings extensive background in education and learning evaluation to DANA. He especially enjoys serving as a conversation catalyst for social justice issues relating to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI).

Rodney has been a professional speaker, motivational coach and trainer for corporations like TMP Worldwide, Nike, Deloitte and several universities. He has developed and delivered learning experiences through multiple forms including in-classroom, conference, and online. Rodney also has worked in nonprofits teaching at the University and K-12 levels.

Rodney is also a family and adolescent psychotherapist. Rodney has a Masters in Education with an emphasis on human development and organizational learning and a B.S. in Finance both from the University of Delaware.

He is a Delaware native and lives in New Castle.